

A G E N D A

AUGUST 20, 2026

SUMMIT EVENTS CONFERENCE CENTER, "RED HALL"
49/3 TIGHINA STREET, CHIȘINĂU, REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA

| Time                 | Activity                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09 : 00 -09 : 30 | REGISTRATION AND WELCOME COFFEEModerators: Elena PANAINTE, Chair of the ACAP RM CouncilExecutive Director of ACAP RM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 09:30 -10:30     | OFFICIAL OPENING OF THE EVENT AND CONGRATULATORY MESSAGES <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Elena PANAINTE, Chair of the ACAP RM Council</li><li>Video - 30 Years of Professional Excellence of ACAP RM</li><li>Victoria BELOUS, Minister of Finance</li><li>Loreta ABABII, Executive Director of the Public Oversight Council for Audit</li><li>Olga GOLBAN, Director of the State Tax Service</li><li>Oleg CARA, Director General of the National Bureau of Statistics of the Republic of Moldova</li><li>Larisa ȘAVGA, PhD, Habilitated Doctor, Professor, Rector of the Cooperative-Commercial University of Moldova</li><li>Otilia DANDARA, Habilitated Doctor, Rector of the Moldova State University</li><li>Ioan GRIGORIU, Former Member of the Council of the Chamber of Financial Auditors of Romania</li></ul> |
| 10:30 -11:10     | RECOGNITION AWARDS CEREMONYPANEL DISCUSSION: THE EVOLUTION AND PROSPECTS OF THE ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING PROFESSION <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Victoria BELOUS, Minister of Finance</li><li>Natalia TONU, Head of the Accounting and Audit Policies in Corporate Sector Division, Ministry of Finance</li><li>Svetlana PLATON, PhD, Senior financial management specialist, World Bank Group's Centre for Financial and Sustainability Reporting Reform</li><li>Loreta ABABII, Executive Director of the Public Oversight Council for Audit</li><li>Dorin CONDRAT, Head of the Supervision and Professional Training Service, the Office for Prevention and Fight against of Money Laundering</li></ul>                                                                                                  |
| 11:10 -11:30     | COFFEE BREAK AND NETWORKING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 11:30 -12:10     | PANEL DISCUSSION: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES OF USING ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IN ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Ana NICOLAESCU, Associate Professor, PhD, General Director, NGA Accounting</li><li>Mihaela SUVEICA, Audit Manager, KPMG Moldova</li><li>Veaceslav CUNEV, PhD, Executive Director, DEEPLACE</li><li>Claudiu BRÂNDĂȘ, Associate Professor, PhD, BCOMM AUDIT MANAGER</li><li>Georgeta COVALIOV, Director of Business Development and Outsourcing, Baker Tilly Moldova</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 12:10 -13:10     | CAP/CIPA CERTIFICATE AWARD CEREMONYANNIVERSARY RECEPTION AND NETWORKING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

PREMIUM PARTNER

EVENT PARTNERS

Crowe

EVENT SPONSORS

MEDIA PARTNERS

